

The Elizabeth Beacham tomb

The tomb of Elizabeth Beacham is situated a short distance to west of the church. The inscription is only partly legible, but the date of death appears to be 1716, which would be consistent with the style of the headstone. The inscription tells us that Elizabeth was the wife of John Beacham, a citizen and vintner of London.